22. Do you agree that your child is taught how to stay safe online?

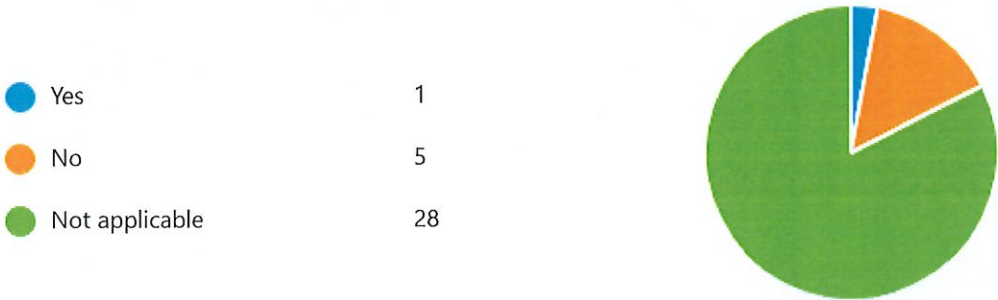

23. Do you agree that you receive timely and clear information from school, e.g. about events, assemblies, trips, parent consultations, etc.?

24. School has, for many years, paid for our pupils to enjoy music lessons, sports lessons, summer trips to the beach, and transport to sports and education events/tournaments - money raised at fundraising events, supported by parents, covers a small part of the cost. Also, occasionally, we ask for voluntary donations to charity. Do you feel that requested donations/contributions to school and charity are affordable for you?

25. If you have a disability, do you have any difficulty accessing the information that school provides to you?

26. How can we make the information more accessible for you?
