- Social Services Directorate (if applicable)
- Torfaen County Borough Council Education Directorate
- This information has been shared with the school by a previous school attended by the pupil

4) We will store your data:

Electronically
Paper files

5) Why does the School process your personal data?

We process personal information about pupils and their families:

- to support pupil learning
- to monitor and report on pupil progress
- to provide appropriate pastoral care
- to assess the quality of our services
- to keep children safe (e.g. so we know about food allergies and have emergency contact details)
- to meet the statutory duties placed upon us for Welsh Government data collections
- to administer trips and activities, catering and free school meal management

6) Special categories of personal data:

Race, ethnic origin, religion, general data, sexual orientation, social care records.

We can process this category of data because:

For the processing of personal data to be lawful, an Article 6 condition from the General Data Protection Regulation is required. Mandatory school processing of pupil information is covered by the Article 6 condition – processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which the controller is subject and is contained within the Education Act 1996 and associated Welsh Government regulations.

Optional processing of personal data is covered by the Article 6 condition – explicit consent. If this is the case, you have the right to withdraw consent. Please contact the school for further information.

Data Protection legislation provides extra protection for certain classes of information called ‘special category’ personal data, which includes:

- Physical or mental health or condition
- Politics
- Racial or ethnic origin
- Religion or other beliefs of a similar nature
- Sexual orientation
- Biometrics (where used for identification purposes)

7) Who has or may request access to your data?

Wonde (3rd party data management service used to provide data to: Teachers2Parents text messaging service; Civica Payment and Civica Cashless online payment system for school meals; GL Assessment) – see www.wonde.com/documents for their GDPR documents and privacy policy

EVOLVE (used by staff to input details of school trips)

The school shares your data with third parties because it is necessary to fulfil the obligations of the data controller.

8) Is the Data transferred out of the EEA? No

9) How does the School protect data?

We have, and are developing further, internal policies to ensure the data it processes is not lost, accidentally destroyed, misused or disclosed. It is stored securely in paper form or, if electronically, will be password protected. Furthermore data is not accessed by employees except in the performance of their duties.

Where the school engages third parties to process personal data on its behalf, they do so on the basis of written instructions. These third parties are also under a duty of confidentiality and are obliged to implement appropriate measures to ensure the security of data.

10) How long does the School keep your data?

The school will hold your personal data only for the period that is necessary and will follow organisational and Local Authority standards in this area.

We will keep your information in line with the school retention schedules.

Pupil Records – until the pupil reaches the age of 25 years old

Google Classroom – 1 year following pupil's departure

11) Are we making automated decisions/profiling with your data? No

12) Your rights

You have a number of rights you can exercise:

- access and obtain a copy of your data on request
- require the School to change incorrect or incomplete data
- under certain circumstances you can require the School to delete or stop processing your data, for example where the data is no longer necessary for the purposes of processing
- to know the period of time that the data will be stored for
- the right to data portability
- the right to withdraw your consent at any time
- the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority (Information Commissioners Office)
- the consequences of if you fail to provide data to the School
- the existence of and automated decision-making, including profiling and the consequences of this for you.

If you would like to exercise any of these rights, please contact the Headteacher in writing who will respond within one calendar month.
